The National Alliance of Preservation Commissions

Become part of the national network of local preservation, historic district, and landmark commissions and boards of architectural review. Organized to help local preservation programs succeed through education, advocacy, and training, The National Alliance of Preservation Commissions is the only national nonprofit organization dedicated to local preservation commissions and their work. NAPC is a source of information and support for local commissions and serves as a unifying body giving them a national voice. As a member of NAPC, you will benefit from the experience and ideas of communities throughout the United States working to protect historic districts and landmarks through local legislation, education, and advocacy.

BENEFITS

- The Alliance Review, a bimonthly newsletter filled with practical information for staff and members of preservation commissions.
- Access to technical assistance and resources for local preservation commissions.
- Access to NAPC-L, NAPC’s members-only Listserv, that connects you to local preservation commission members, staff, and others across the United States.
- Significantly discounted registration for Forum, NAPC’s biennial conference that brings together commissions, staff, and preservation professionals across the country for a week of education, exploration, and networking.
- A voice for your commission in Washington D.C. with the National Park Service, the National Trust for Historic Preservation, the Advisory Council for Historic Preservation, Preservation Action, and the National Conference of State Historic Preservation Officers.
