AGENDA
LINCOLN, NE
SATURDAY, MAY 2, 2015

9:00 - 9:15  Welcome and Introductions, Ruben Acosta and Jack Williams

9:15 – 9:45  Preservation Introduction: An overview of preservation addressing the range of resources that comprise our cultural heritage, the partners that act to preserve these resources, the place of the commission in this partnership, and the tools that commissions utilize to accomplish their responsibilities to their community.  Jack Williams

9:45 – 10:30 The Basis of Design Review: A facilitated discussion of the Secretary of the Interior’s Standards for Rehabilitation. The session will identify the key elements in the designation process, illustrate the Standards, offer comparison to local guidelines, and offer best practices utilizing criteria to generate design review decisions.  Jack Williams

10:30 – 11:15  Break

11:15 – 12:30 Conducting Design Review: An outline of the key procedural elements of an historic commission meeting. The session will be a design review exercise that focuses on the sequence of actions employed during the consideration of an application, the way in which application are to be judged, and the proper way to summarize this judgment.  Jack Williams

12:30 – 1:00  Wrap-up and Q & A