Student Scholarships Available
FORUM 2022, Cincinnati, OH July 13-17, 2022

The National Alliance of Preservation Commissions (NAPC) is pleased to offer scholarship support to qualified current students and recent graduates of undergraduate and graduate-level preservation, architecture, history, planning and other related programs to attend and participate in FORUM 2022 in Cincinnati, OH July 13-17, 2022.

FORUM is the only national conference focused around the needs and issues of preservation commissions and commission staff. The interactive conference blends traditional educational sessions, discussion panels, mobile workshops and tours, providing participants with essential training and networking opportunities. FORUM is held every other year in interesting destination cities and brings local commission members from across the country together with representatives from local, state and national organizations, governments and federal agencies.

NAPC is committed to investing a portion of its resources to introduce students of preservation programs to NAPC through financial support and attendance at its programs and events. To learn more about FORUM 2022, please visit our website at napcommissions.org/forum

NAPC's scholarships provide:
- Registration to FORUM
- Reimbursement for qualified travel and lodging expenses (up to $600 based on receipts provided)
- Individual Membership for one year to the NAPC ($20 for students) which includes:
  - The Alliance Review, our quarterly journal filled with timely articles on best practices and informative case studies in preservation
  - Access to NAPC-L, our organization’s member listserv
  - Access to a resource library of technical information related to historic preservation commissions
  - Access to free continuing education webinars
  - A voice for local preservation on the national level.
Recipients will be asked to volunteer a minimum of four (4) hours at the conference. NAPC, with its all-volunteer Board of Directors finds that volunteering with the organization provides a valuable opportunity to engage with membership and to learn more about NAPC. Volunteer activities may include assisting with registration, acting as a liaison or facilitating tours.

“New Voices in Preservation” - Recipients also have the opportunity to share questions and ideas via a digital presentation (i.e. PowerPoint, video, etc.) addressing the challenges and innovations in the field of historic preservation. These presentations will be shared during FORUM and on NAPC’s website.

To qualify for consideration of a NAPC scholarship award, please submit your application by March 16, 2022.

Details for applying follow. All applications are to be sent electronically to director@napcommissions.org
Student Scholarships Available for the National Alliance of Preservation Commissions’ FORUM
Cincinnati, Ohio
13 July - 17 July 2022

Application Deadline: March 16, 2022

Application to include:

1. Cover letter stating your name, address, telephone numbers, e-mail address, academic institution, area of study, degree and date of graduation

2. Statement describing your interest in FORUM 2022 and what you hope to gain from the experience (Statement limited to one page)

3. Indicate if you have attended FORUM previously

4. Estimate of your expenses to attend FORUM and your anticipated financial contribution if any

5. Proof of current student status or recent date of graduation: signed and dated letter from your program or academic institution’s registrar certifying your status

6. Resume

7. Two academic and /or professional references

8. Proposed presentation topic addressing the challenges and innovations in the field of historic preservation. While this is not a requirement, priority will be given to applicants who intend to submit a digital presentation.

Please submit your completed application in PDF format as an email attachment. Subject line to read: [YOUR NAME] FORUM 2022 Scholarship Application.

Applications to be sent electronically to NAPC at director@napcommissions.org.

NAPC will acknowledge electronically receipt of your submission. Should you have questions, please contact director@napcommissions.org.

Thank you!